

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 95

By Jones S

A RESOLUTION to create a special joint committee to study the feasibility of establishing a separate state regulatory board for fire suppression personnel.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that there is hereby created a special joint committee to study the feasibility of establishing a separate state regulatory board for fire suppression personnel.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the special joint committee shall also study and make recommendations relative to the potential composition of a separate state regulatory board for fire suppression personnel, including the feasibility of the Governor appointing the members of the board based upon recommendations submitted by the Tennessee Professional Firefighters Association and other fire suppression organizations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the special joint committee shall consist of three (3) members of the House of Representatives and three (3) members of the Senate, to be appointed by the respective Speakers.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all appropriate state agencies shall provide assistance to the special joint committee upon request of the chair.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all legislative members of the special joint committee who are duly elected members of the General Assembly shall remain members of such committee until the committee reports its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the special joint committee shall be convened by the member with the most years of continuous service in the General Assembly, and at its first meeting shall elect a chair, vice chair, and such other officers the committee deems necessary.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the special joint committee shall timely report its findings and recommendations, including any proposed legislation, to the One Hundred Third General Assembly no later than February 1, 2004, at which time the committee shall cease to exist.
